Katrina,

The railroad section that goes through the Wilcox Site is owned by Watco Company, Stillwater Central Railroad (<http://www.watcocompanies.com/our-services/rail-services/slwc/>).

I spoke with Mr. Pat Foster, General Manager about granting access to the railroad property. He recently granted access to property on the Oklahoma Refining Company (ORC) Superfund Site.

He did not have many questions regarding the site, however he might contact you upon receipt of an access agreement/letter.
